Re: Original inquiry by [redacted]
7/14/97

Original request for assistance in this matter was made by [redacted]
[redacted] Legal Attache advised in a memorandum dated 11/13/97 that as reported by the San Diego Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on August 7, 1992, ARIC [redacted]
[redacted] was deposed pursuant to a civil court case entitled, "Air Routing International Corporation (ARIC) versus Baseops International, Inc., [redacted]
[redacted]" within the District Court of Harris County, Texas. During the deposition, [redacted] had stated that ARIC had falsified overflight permits for their clients in approximately ten different foreign countries. The FBI at San Diego would provide no comment on the bonafides of ARIC in general. The disposition of this matter is unknown at this time.

b6
b7C

Our Houston Office recently advised that a search of FBI records at Houston revealed that Air Routing International Corporation is a legitimate company and FBI Houston is aware of its existence, in particular as a provider of credit cards for the purchase of aircraft fueling. [redacted]

b3
b7E

The FBI is offering no recommendation regarding [redacted]
[redacted] dealings with this company, and neither endorses ARIC nor cautions [redacted] in this regard. Remarks made in a deposition are not necessarily fact, and it appears that no criminal charges have been filed against ARIC. [redacted]

b3 per DIA

b3
b7E

For your information and review, the Houston Office of the FBI provided public access data on ARIC at Houston, to include addresses used and corporate officers named. This information is contained in attached report.

As there were no additional references to ARIC in the FBI's data base, it is unlikely that Legal Attache will be of further assistance to you in this matter.

Dear Sirs,

Attached you will find current statement and the invoices which remain outstanding on their account. On July 12th, 1997, obtained third party and fuel services in Kiev. We at Air Fuel issued two invoices, on August 13th and on October 27th for those services. At present, our records show that we have not received payment for these billings. We are unsure of whom to contact regarding these invoices. Please review the attached pages and contact me if there is someone else I need to be sending these to. It is most urgent that we receive word from you, as this account is becoming seriously delinquent. I greatly appreciate your cooperation and attention to this matter.

Best Regards,

Marisa M. Rivera

Synopsis: Additional information developed at Kiev indicating inappropriate billing practices by suspected newly named "AIRFUEL INTERNATIONAL" (same address as "AIR ROUTING INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION"). Identification of a bank account number at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Enclosures: Copy of cover letter from AIRFUEL INTERNATIONAL for billing [redacted] use of airport facilities at Kiev, Ukraine.

Details: On 11/06/1997, [redacted]

[redacted] provided attached copy of cover letter from "AIRFUEL INTERNATIONAL" to [redacted] for billing of various airport fees at Borisupol Airport, Kiev, Ukraine. (It is believed that the name of the company has changed from "AIR ROUTING INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION" to "AIRFUEL INTERNATIONAL".) [redacted] advised that certain charges billed are invalid. He added that for the time being, no payment would be made to this company, as [redacted] prefers to pay the airport directly for all legitimate expenses incurred.
